YOUTH RECYCLED ART CONTEST

Calling all K-12th grade students!

Create your very own work of art made out of recyclable or reused items.

Students can make paintings, collage, sculptures, and more of any size and shape. Get creative!

The competition will be separated by two different age groups; K-5th and 6-12th grade.

Art work will be exhibited throughout the Home & Garden Show on February 25 and 26, 2023, and will be judged on effective use of recycled/reused items, creativity and overall presentation

PRIZES

For each of the two age categories, a First, Second, and Third place winner will be chosen.

- First Place: Winners will receive a $250 savings account at TCCU and their school will also receive a $250 donation from TCCU to be used for their arts program. *
- Second Place: Winners will receive a $100 savings account at TCCU and their school will also receive a $100 donation from TCCU to be used for their arts program. *
- Third Place: Winners will receive a $50 savings account at TCCU and their school will also receive a $50 donation from TCCU to be used for their arts program. *

**If homeschooled, the school donation would be given to the parent or guardian of the artist in the form of a gift card to Mardel Christian Bookstore, to be used for school supplies.*

RULES

HOW TO ENTER

Please drop off your art at either the 4019 Southwest Parkway or 3800 Sheppard Access Road branches of TCCU between February 20th-23rd. (Please do not bring artwork to our branch Downtown.) Artwork may be dropped off at the MPEC Auditorium between 3:00-5:30pm on Friday, February 24th.

The ART SUBMISSION FORM must be included/attached to each piece of art to identify it, or else the entry will be ineligible for the contest and prizes.

All artwork received after 5:30 pm on Friday, February 24th will be ineligible for the contest and prizes, but can still be displayed during the Home & Garden Show recycled art exhibit.

JUDGING

You do not have to be present to win. Art will be displayed anonymously through Sunday, February 26th. Judging will take place on Saturday, February 25th, by a panel of three impartial judges.

Art will be judged and scored on the following criteria:

- 1. Effective use of recycled items
- 2. Creativity
- 3. Overall presentation

Artist's identities will remain anonymous to the judges, however, the artist's age will be disclosed and factored in to the judging evaluation process.

Certificates will be placed next to the winning pieces on Sunday, February 26th, and announced on the TCCU and Arts Alive! Home & Garden Festival Facebook pages. Winners will be contacted individually on Monday, February 27th.

ART PICKUP

If you would like your artwork back at the end of the show, you must pick it up on Sunday, February 26th between 4:00-5:00pm. All art not picked up before 5:00pm will be forfeited by the artist.
